

That's Amore!

PORT ORCHARD

May 21-23, 2010

Port Orchard Marina

Port Orchard is a picturesque and friendly small town with old Victorian style houses located on Sinclair Inlet. The marina offers many amenities including walking distance to several restaurants, antique shops and a hometown museum. On Saturday, visit the local farmer's market from 9am-3pm located on the waterfront to get the local flavor of Port Orchard.

Bremerton

During your visit to Port Orchard, jump on the restored "mosquito fleet" foot-ferry to transport you from Port Orchard to the revitalized Bremerton Marina where you can explore their naval museum, tour the actual USS Turner Joy Navy vessel, plus additional shops/restaurants.

EHYC's That's Amore! Cruise to Port Orchard May 21-23, 2010

Saturday Night

That's Amore!

On Saturday night May 22nd, we will enjoy dinner dockside as members bring their favorite Italian cucina style dishes and Italian wine to share while being serenaded with O Sole Mio!

Brush up on Italian trivia for fun prizes!

Please make your reservations early and directly with Laura Dresel via e-mail Ldresel3779@hotmail.com or by phone (206)842-3779. I will coordinate with the marina and arrange the berths. Please advise me of the boat name, length and how many persons in your party. Cost of a 40ft slip is $28.00 (power $4.00/night)

Come cruise with us and visit "Little Italy" at the Port Orchard Marina!

Buon Appetito!

Laura Dresel, Cruise Captain

